Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This is a sad story, with a somewhat touching folded ending. It tells of a nameless newly married village girl, coerced into coming to the city with her husband to do menial work during the dry season. With a successive sequence of unending cruel happenings to this young maid, the tale handles a flawed state of nationhood and highlights the aging nation's very own silent relationship with its own people, and their disdain for what made them anything special. It hints of their never ending and never ever accomplished ulterior desire to be something else, other than what they really are; mainly a country still failing at forging a statehood for itself. The tale draws parallels with an ailed Nigerian federation as the young lady is starved by her husband and tricked into being raped by a night watchman. Her husband finds out and beats her, before he mysteriously disappears amidst a bloody civil unrest. Then the watchman is accidentally killed. She is lost in the huge city, begs for alms to feed, sleeps everywhere in the...
