Its My Turn Now is a contemporary poetry book packed with inspirations and thoughts so well papered that one can easily feel the Lord's intervention in the writings. The different styles and moods used by the writer are enough to transform one's cogitation into reality. No matter who the readers are, it is guaranteed; one will find a poem that can speak to his/her heart. This is a no nonsense poetry tome, that will revitalize the souls, empower the weak and the feeble, and provide hope to those who have traveled certain paths. If one has been struggling with negative feelings and reflections that crumble the core, Its My Turn Now, will serve as a booster to lift you up, in time of despair, confusion and uncertainties. Go ahead; tell someone, Its My Turn Now. Fritz-Gerald Delice is the Award-winning author of the well acclaimed Inspirational poetry book Just Let It Flow, published in 2006. Twenty five years ago, a young boy, from Port-au-Prince Haiti, the poorest country in the western hemisphere, came to the United States just like other determined enthusiasts; seeking a better span, superior than what his own could possibly offer. With a well-disposed mind, Delice applied himself accordingly. Through the years, balancing church, work, and schools, while relying solely on God's infinite grace for provisions. He has earned an associate degree in Accounting, a Baccalaureate and Magna Cum Laude Masters in Business Administration. Fritz-Gerald has written a host of articles for various magazines, including The Gwinnett Life; featured in three different anthologies. His poetry writing styles earned him the Editors Choice awards two years in a row and he has been recognized by the International Library of Poets as a Poet Scholar. This item...
