Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Lippincotts s Farm Manuals: Productive Horse Husbandry It has been the author s purpose to emphasize industry as applied to horses. If the production, marketing, and use of horses were regarded as an industry and conducted more generally along business lines, with a definite purpose in view, more uniform results could be obtained and with greater profit to those engaged. It is quite generally conceded that the investigations of the experiment stations, as well as the instruction in the schools and colleges, have been more exhaustive in their application to cattle, hogs, sheep, and poultry than to horses. This is unrepresentative of the importance of the horse industry and inadequate to its needs. The aimless, hit or miss, haphazard system prevails in the production of horses more than in any other class of live stock; the scrub stallion is less in disrepute than the scrub bull, and most producers of market cattle, hogs, or sheep devote themselves more intelligently to their enterprise than do the breeders of horses. Commonly the original producer receives a lower...
