By Pfeffer, Susan Beth

Yearling, New York, New York, U.S.A., 1997. Soft cover. Book Condition: New. Book Description: Taryn realizes that the whispering she hears between her parents is really fighting, and she is worried that they may get a divorce. Her worry carries over to school, where she is accused of playing a nasty prank on one of her teachers. Her two closest friends have a perfect alibi, so they too wonder--did she do it? To prove her innocence, Taryn must investigate. She finds herself lying to cover up her parents' problems, while trying to uncover what actually happened. Can Taryn clear her name as well as make things better at home? Ingram: Increasingly upset by what she believes is her parents' imminent divorce, Taryn is accused of a prank that makes even her best friends suspicious, and the troubled teen must clear her name and fix her family life. Reprint. VY. SLJ. " From the Publisher: Taryn realizes that the whispering she hears between her parents is really fighting, and she is worried that they may get a divorce.
