Conversations with Emmanuel Levinas: 1983-1994

By Michael de Saint-Cheron, Gary D. Mole

Duquesne University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Conversations with Emmanuel Levinas: 1983-1994, Michael de Saint-Cheron, Gary D. Mole, An ardent admirer and student of Emmanuel Levinas during the last decade of the philosopher's life, Michael de Saint Cheron sat down with his mentor for these interviews, conducted between 1992 and 1994. Throughout, their conversations provide further insight into the key concepts of responsibility, transcendence, holiness, and the hostage for understanding Levinas's notion of ethics as first philosophy. As Levinas and Saint Cheron discuss a variety of topics -- death and time in the philosophies of Heidegger and Bergson, eros and the feminine, the Judeo-Christian dialogue, Levinass differences of thought with Paul Ricur, reflections on the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising and the "end of history" with the fall of Western Communism -- we can clearly see Levinass ceaseless engagement with the justification for living after such horrors as those of Auschwitz, Hiroshima, Stalinism, Cambodia, or Rwanda. Included here as well, following the interviews, are several essays in which Saint Cheron presents his own further considerations of their conversations and Levinas's ideas. He writes of the relation of the epiphany of the face to the idea of holiness; of Sartre and,...
