Not illustrated. 1839 Excerpt: .and I have thought it therefore incumbent on me to send this friendly letter. Nothing is hidden from your Lordship which is passing in this country. I therefore repose entire confidence in your Lordship. I am aware of the favourable disposition which your Lordship entertains towards supporting and strengthening my Government. I beg No. 17. Ameer Dost Mshomed Khan to Lord Auckland. I beg your Lordship, considering me attached to the British Government, will be pleased to betow early attention on the affairs of this quarter, as, from delaying, difficulties arise, which may not hereafter be put in order with facility.--No. 18.--Lord Auckland to Ameer Dost Mahomed Khan. No, 18. After compliments. Camp at Bareilly, 20 January 1838. Smew DM I Have received with great satisfaction repeated accounts from Captain homed Khan. Burnes of the cordial and friendly reception which you have given to his 20 Januait l838. mission, and of the disposition which you have evinced to meet the views of the British Government. This intelligence has been very acceptable to me, and has confirmed my desire to mark the friendly feelings with which I regard you and the other chiefs of Affghanistan. My friend Captain Burnes has explained to me the different propositions which you have made to him, and your desire to obtain possession, on certain conditions specified by you, of the territory of Peshawur, now held by Maharajah Runjeet Sing. In regard to your relations with the other chiefs of Affghanistan, my...
